

River Valley Community College Student Recipient of Medical Assistant Scholarship

Stephanie Merchant, a senior Medical Assistant student at River Valley Community College in Claremont, is a recipient of the Maxine Williams Scholarship awarded by the American Association of Medical Assistants (AAMA).

Named after Maxine Williams, a founder of the American Association of Medical Assistants and its first president, the program was established in 1959 to provide educational assistance to deserving medical assisting students. The fund is supported entirely by private contributions.

According to Medical Assistant Program Director Lisa Gould, "Stephanie has always presented a mature and motivated attitude in all of her courses."

Merchant is from Swanzey, NH. She is secretary of the RVCC chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, an International Honor Society for two-year colleges.
