

RVCC Respiratory Therapy Students Win Scholarships

Respiratory Therapy students from River Valley Community College attended the Vermont/New Hampshire Society for Respiratory Care 2010 Educational Conference held recently in Burlington NH. The students were invited to compete for scholarships awarded by the Society. Three RVCC students won for their presentations: Alyssa Shannon took first place and won a $500.00 scholarship; Betty Dozier was second and won $300.00; and, Tim Dazet placed fourth and won a $100.00 scholarship. “We are proud of the students who participated and congratulate our scholarship winners,” said Ken Czechowicz, Associate Professor of Respiratory Therapy at River Valley.

The VT/NH Society for Respiratory Care is a non-profit professional organization, whose mission is to encourage and promote professional excellence, advance the science and practice of respiratory care, and serve as an advocate for the patients, their families, the public and the profession of respiratory care.

Conference attendees from River Valley Community College and Vermont Technical College