SOMETHING NEW AND EXCITING AT RIVER VALLEY COMMUNITY COLLEGE
EXPANDED SCHEDULE, LOCATIONS AND HOURS

River Valley Community College is offering increased opportunities for students to enroll during the Spring 2014 semester. Registration is now in process and classes begin January 21, 2014. In addition to classes in Claremont, Keene and Online, RVCC is excited to offer Introduction to Psychology at the Kilton Library in West Lebanon, NH on Saturdays. Additionally, RVCC will be expanding its hours and opening The Puksta Library at the Claremont campus on Saturdays from 9am-3pm for students and for use by the general public. “This is an opportunity to expand our connection to the community and provide additional access and exposure to RVCC”, said Dr. Alicia B. Harvey-Smith, President.

This spring, new courses include Art Appreciation, Introduction to Geography and Astronomy. Customized training in Advanced Machine Tool, Sales Management and Lean Manufacturing will also be offered, as well as a Machine Tool Boot Camp in both Claremont and Keene. This is a 5-day intensive training combining classroom time with hands-on lab work for people interested in entering the manufacturing world. President Harvey-Smith said, “RVCC has tremendous opportunities available for the community and wants RVCC to be viewed as a pathway to success. Her motto, “you can get there from here,” underscores that RVCC is a pathway to transfer, employment and or personal development.
River Valley Community College offers a comprehensive list of credit courses, including those designed to meet the needs of students who are entering Liberal Arts, Business, Criminal Justice, Allied Health fields, Early Childhood Education, Human Services, Nursing, and Teacher Education, and those who wish to take courses for transfer into 4-year colleges or universities. Unique programs in Cybersecurity & Healthcare IT and Sleep Disorders (Polysomnography) are also available. The College offers over 39 Associate Degree, Certificate and Diploma programs.

For more information and to register, contact the College at 1-800-837-0658 or go to www.rivervalley.edu. The main campus is located at 1 College Place in Claremont and the Academic Center is at 438 Washington Street in downtown Keene, NH.
