2020-2021 Verification of Means of Support

Clarification is needed regarding the income/means of support provided on the 2020-2021 FAFSA for the 2018 calendar year. Often, when a student or a student’s parent(s) are asked to specifically explain the family’s means of support, a student/parent discovers they have forgotten to list some sources of income/support on the application.

This form should be completed by the Student.

1. Please check below if, in 2018 or 2019, you or anyone in your household received the following:

- Medicaid or Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
- Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)
- Free or Reduced Price School Lunch
- Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF)
- Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants, and Children (WIC)

2. If no one in your household received any of the above, please answer the following question regarding cash support:

Cash support includes:

- a) Money and gifts
- b) Money paid to someone else on your behalf (any expense you were obligated to pay, i.e. the bill is your name) for housing, food, clothing, car payments or expenses, medical and dental care, college costs, living expenses...
- c) For dependent students, this would include any cash support from your non-custodial parent which was not included in a legal child support agreement.

Did you receive any cash support in 2018? Yes / No

How much cash support did you receive? $ _____
