* If your financial aid is complete, you may elect to use your remaining Title IV funds to purchase or rent books and supplies from the campus bookstore. If you select yes for this authorization, the book advance will automatically be set up for you at the campus bookstore. Confirmation of the book advance and spending limit may be found on your SIS account. You must show your school ID (or other government-issued picture ID) and a copy of your schedule at the bookstore when making your purchase. Your book advance may only be used during the book advance period, usually two weeks prior and three weeks following the beginning of each semester. The amount of your book and/or supply purchase will be charged to your student account. Your remaining Title IV credit balance will be applied to these charges. I understand that if, for any reason, I fail to receive financial aid upon which a bookstore credit is based, or if the amount of financial aid $I$ receive for the semester is insufficient to pay for all of the charges on my account, $I$ am obligated to pay to the College the amount of any unpaid charges on my account resulting from the use of the book advance program. I recognize that $I$ am account, I am obligated to pay to the College the amount of any unpaid charges on my account resulting from the use of the book advance program. I recognize that I am responsible for any charges applied to my account after any remaining Title IV credit balance is refunded to me. I further understand that these are voluntary authorizations in place for the current aid year. I also understand that I may revoke my authorizations at any time by completing a new Student Title IV Authorization Form and submitting

Federal regulations permit students to authorize Title IV financial aid funds to pay for current semester non-institutional educationally related charges such as school health services, parking and library fines, parking permits, on-campus childcare service charges, and other educationally related goods and services that the student incurred. If you are eligible for federal financial aid in excess of tuition and fees, and you wish to use this excess to cover current semester non-institutional charges, you must authorize the College to pay these charges. (Items such as late charges/fees, interest charges, finance charges, and bad check fees may NOT be covered by financial aid, even with student authorization, as these are not educationaly related expenses.) I understand that these are voluntary authorizations in place for the current aid year. I also understand that may revoke my authorizations at any time by completing a new Student Title IV Authorization Form and submitting it to the Financial Aid Office.

* Federal Title IV financial aid funds may pay up to $$ 200$ of prior year educationally related expenses with your authorization. Educationally related expenses include, for place for the current aid year. I also understand that I may revoke my authorizations at any time by completing a new Student Title IV Authorization Form and submitting it to the Financial Aid Office.
* CCSNH encourages students to borrow responsibly. If a dependent student borrows the maximum amount of loans during freshman and sophomore years, the student would independent student borrows the maximum of loans during freshman and sophomore years, the student would owe $$ 20,000$. With an interest rate of $4.53 \%$, this student would have a $$ 207$ month payment for ten years. The total amount paid back would be $$ 24,873$. Remember, your unsubsidized loan accrues interest while you are in school! These repayment examples assume that the student is paying the interest charges on any unsubsidized loans and is not capitalizing the interest while in school. If the student is capitalizing the interest, the cumulative payments and total interest charges will be higher than shown here.
